

The Skinners' School

Tunbridge Wells

Client

The Skinners' School

Project Cost

£3.75 million

Status

Planning consent granted

This new building will provide much-needed accommodation including a sixth form centre, library and arts faculty for this prestigious grammar school in Tunbridge Wells, Kent. Our design draws on the neighbouring Victorian school buildings to forge an architectural language that is contemporary and forward-looking, in keeping with the ethos of the school.

The Skinners' School / Bell Phillips Architects

